

Justice For All Coalition, Inc.

Privacy Policy

1. Introduction

1.1. The Justice For All Coalition is dedicated to safeguarding the privacy of individuals who interact with us. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect personal information related to our mission of supporting public housing residents and addressing housing-related issues.

2. Information We Collect

2.1. Personal Information:

- When you participate in our programs, sign up for events, donate, or volunteer, we may collect your name, contact details, demographic information, and payment details (if applicable).
- If you share testimonials, stories, or photos, we may collect and use this information with your consent.

2.2. Non-Personal Information:

- Information such as your IP address, device type, and browsing behavior may be collected when you access our website.

3. How We Use Your Information

- 3.1. To facilitate our housing programs, workshops, and community events.
- 3.2. To process donations, issue receipts, and provide donor acknowledgments.
- 3.3. To inform you about our initiatives, advocacy efforts, and volunteer opportunities.
- 3.4. To generate anonymous data to analyze trends and improve our services.

4. Sharing of Information

4.1. Community Support Services:

- With your consent, we may share information with trusted partners who provide housing assistance, legal aid, or related resources to support our mission.

4.2. Legal and Compliance Requirements:

- We may disclose personal information if required to comply with applicable laws or to protect the rights and safety of our beneficiaries.

5. Data Security

5.1. We use secure systems and encryption methods to protect personal information during collection, storage, and transmission.

5.2. Access to sensitive information is restricted to authorized personnel only.

6. Cookies and Tracking

6.1. Our website uses cookies to improve user experience, track engagement with our cause, and tailor content to your interests.

6.2. You may disable cookies through your browser settings, but doing so may affect your ability to use certain features on our website.

7. Children's Privacy

7.1. We prioritize protecting the privacy of minors, especially when working with families in public housing.

7.2. Personal information about children under the age of 13 will only be collected and used with explicit parental or guardian consent.

8. Accessing and Updating Your Information

8.1. Participants, donors, and volunteers have the right to access, update, or delete their information.

8.2. To exercise these rights, contact us at [Contact Email].

9. Data Retention

9.1. Personal information will be retained only as long as necessary to support our programs or fulfill legal obligations.

9.2. After the retention period, data will be securely deleted or anonymized.

10. Advocacy and Research

10.1. We may use anonymized data for housing policy research, grant applications, or advocacy reports.

10.2. No identifiable personal information will be shared in these activities without your explicit consent.

11. Changes to This Policy

11.1. We may update this policy to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements.

11.2. Updates will be communicated via our website or email, with the effective date clearly indicated.
